

The goal is contentment not success.

“I don’t mean to say that I have already achieved these things or that I have already reached perfection. But I press on to possess that perfection for which Christ Jesus first possessed me.”

Philippians 3:14 NLT

What better definition of perfection do we have than contentment?

“But you are to be perfect, even as your Father in heaven is perfect.”

Matthew 5:48 NLT

Is not GOD the picture of contentment? He needs nothing.

*“The LORD is my shepherd;
I have all that I need.”*

Psalm 23:1 NLT

We only need GOD.

That’s what the Bible tells us.

“For the word of God is alive and powerful. It is sharper than the sharpest two-edged sword, cutting between soul and spirit, between joint and marrow. It exposes our innermost thoughts and desires.”

Hebrews 4:12 NLT

“cutting between soul and spirit”

Cutting between coping and really living.

“For to me, to live is Christ and to die is gain.”

Philippians 1:21 NIV

Contentment is wanting what you have,
not having what you want.

Chasing the wind takes its toll on us all.
Jesus invites us to accept the way GOD does things. To take His yoke upon us and learn from Him, and to experience the deep satisfaction that contentment brings.
