

This is a very interesting way to look at the Bible.

Imagine a Book that exists where the original words were so true that no matter how many times you translate it, you cannot make it untrue.

That's the power of GOD's word.

But the man who gave me these 2 words didn't see it that way.

He told me of a time in his life when he had read the Bible in one version after another. What was his conclusion? Every time they translated it they changed it so much that it lost the truth. To him, it was as if the truth had been ...

Heavily Redacted.

To me, the truth is still there. It's found in another 2 words ...

When I read the Bible I ask myself, "What's the message?" It's not always as plain as the image above, but one thing that is for certain ... it hasn't changed.

How can I say that?

The Point is still the same.

The Point

“The message of the cross is foolish to those who are headed for destruction! But we who are being saved know it is the very power of God. As the Scriptures say,

“I will destroy the wisdom of the wise and discard the intelligence of the intelligent.”

So where does this leave the philosophers, the scholars, and the world’s brilliant debaters? God has made the wisdom of this world look foolish. Since God in his wisdom saw to it that the world would never know him through human wisdom, he has used our foolish preaching to save those who believe.”
